unmatched culture of innovation resilience and flexibility and how it exported that culture to other countries that are strikingly different from Japan establishing locally controlled operations in each region where it lays down roots For instance Rothfeder reports on life at a Honda factory in the tiny town of Lincoln Alabama When the American workers were trained to follow the Honda Way as a self sufficient outpost of the global company their plant pioneered a new model for manufacturing in America As Soichiro Honda himself liked to say Success can be achieved only through repeated failure and introspection In fact success represents one percent of your work which results only from the ninety nine percent that is called failure
