Grave Misfortune: The USS Indianapolis Tragedy Richard A. Hulver, 2019-06-03

Dedicated to the Sailors and Marines who lost their lives on the final voyage of USS Indianapolis and to those who survived the torment at sea following its sinking, plus the crews that risked their lives in rescue ships. The USS Indianapolis CA 35 was a decorated World War II warship that is primarily remembered for her worst 15 minutes. This ship earned ten battle stars for her service in World War II and was credited for shooting down nine enemy planes. However, this fame was overshadowed by the first 15 minutes of July 30, 1945, when she was struck by two torpedoes from Japanese submarine I-58 and sent to the bottom of the Philippine Sea. The sinking of Indianapolis and the loss of 880 crew out of 1,196, most deaths occurring in the 45-day wait for a rescue, is a tragedy in U.S. naval history. This historical reference showcases primary source documents to tell the story of Indianapolis, the history of this tragedy from the U.S. Navy perspective. It recounts the sinking, rescue efforts, follow-up investigations, aftermath, and continuing communications efforts. Included are deck logs to better understand the ship's location when she sank and testimony of survivors and participants.
