The Tetris Effect Dan Ackerman, 2016-09-06 The definitive story of a game so great even the Cold War couldn't stop it. Tetris is perhaps the most instantly recognizable popular video game ever made. But how did an obscure Soviet programmer working on frail antiquated computers create a product which has now earned nearly 1 billion in sales? How did a makeshift game turn into a worldwide sensation which has been displayed at the Museum of Modern Art inspired a big budget sci fi movie and been played in outer space? A quiet but brilliant young man Alexey Pajitnov had long nurtured a love for the obscure puzzle game pentominoes and became obsessed with turning it into a computer game. Little did he know that the project that he labored on alone hour after hour would soon become the most addictive game ever made. In this fast paced business story reporter Dan Ackerman reveals how Tetris became one of the world's first viral hits passed from player to player eventually breaking through the Iron Curtain into the West. British American and Japanese moguls waged a bitter fight over the rights sending their fixers racing around the globe to secure backroom deals while a secretive Soviet organization named ELORG chased down the game's growing global profits. The Tetris Effect is an homage to both creator and creation and a must read for anyone who's ever played the game which is to say everyone

Warm Beer, Lousy Food John S. Columbia, 2009-12 The line began forming after eight o'clock. Sal short and heavy set kept everyone busy. Neat in a white shirt and sports jacket with his grey fedora cocked to the side his crooked grin made you smile. Without warning the heavy door would swing open and the waiters would come outside to join him. They were dressed in pajamas or prison garb with hats and horns and were there to warm up the crowd. Some in line expected this others were shocked. The pink polka dot building should have been a warning. Complete strangers in line became chummy exchanging stories they had heard. Toilet seat covers to serve drinks on microphones in the ladies room toilet paper for napkins. Most had brought their friends there to be roasted. The line of people varied in age. They all dressed casually because they'd heard you could get a pie in the face or a squirt in the eye. The club's routines were blue in color but harmless. If you were lucky you might see a Balls
