capitalist trading systems he shows that they can cross the divide and graduate from supplier nation to producer nation Branding native produce on a global scale making a commercial virtue out of perceived authenticity and otherness and fully capitalising on the last mile benefits are key to this graduation and fundamental to forging a new global economic balance Anholt argues with a forceful logic but also backs his hypothesis with enticing glimpses of this process actually beginning to take place Examining activities in India Thailand Russia and Africa among others he shows the risks challenges and pressures inherent in turning the tide but above all he demonstrates the very real possibility of enlightened capitalism working as a force for good in global terms
