Reliability and Validity of International Large-Scale Assessment Hans Wagemaker,2020-09-03 This open access book describes and reviews the development of the quality control mechanisms and methodologies associated with IEA s extensive program of educational research A group of renowned international researchers directly involved in the design and execution of IEA s international large scale assessments ILSAs describe the operational and quality control procedures that are employed to address the challenges associated with providing high quality comparable data Throughout the now considerable history of IEA s international large scale assessments establishing the quality of the data has been paramount Research in the complex multinational context in which IEA studies operate imposes significant burdens and challenges in terms of the methodologies and technologies that have been developed to achieve the stated study goals The demands of the twin imperatives of validity and reliability must be satisfied in the context of multiple and diverse cultures languages orthographies educational structures educational histories and traditions Readers will learn about IEA s approach to such challenges and the methods used to ensure that the quality of the data provided to policymakers and researchers can be trusted An often neglected area of investigation namely the consequential validity of ILSAs is also explored examining issues related to reporting dissemination and impact including discussion of the limits of interpretation The final chapters address the question of the influence of ILSAs on policy and reform in education including a case study from Singapore a country known for its outstanding levels of achievement but which nevertheless seeks the means of continual improvement illustrating best practice use of ILSA data

Winning the Story Wars Jonah Sachs,2012-06-19 Trying to get your message heard Build an iconic brand Welcome to the battlefield The story wars are all around us They are the struggle to be heard in a world of media noise and clamor Today most brand messages and mass appeals for causes are drowned out before they even reach us But a few consistently break through the din using the only tool that has ever moved minds and changed behavior great stories With insights from mythology advertising history evolutionary biology and psychology viral storyteller and advertising expert Jonah Sachs takes readers into a fascinating world of seemingly insurmountable challenges and enormous opportunity You ll discover how Social media tools are driving a return to the oral tradition in which stories that matter rise above the fray Marketers have become today s mythmakers providing society with explanation meaning and ritual Memorable stories based on timeless themes build legions of eager evangelists Marketers and audiences can work together to create deeper meaning and stronger partnerships in building a better world Brands like Old Spice The Story of Stuff Nike the Tea Party and Occupy Wall Street created and sustained massive viral buzz Winning the Story Wars is a call to arms for business communicators to cast aside broken traditions and join a revolution to build the iconic brands of the future It puts marketers in the role of heroes with a chance to transform not just their craft but the enterprises they represent After all success in the story wars doesn t come just from telling great stories but from learning to live them

Hacking Digital Cameras Chieh Cheng,Auri

Rahimzadeh,2005-09-23 Provides step by step instructions for more than twenty modifications for digital cameras including building a remote control creating car mounts and making a home light studio Skills, Not Just Diplomas Lars

Sondergaard,2012 Future growth in the countries in Eastern Europe and Central Asia ECA will increasingly depend on innovation And innovation requires skills This makes it important as countries plan for recovery to undertake reforms to reduce the skills shortages that the previous growth episode exposed Education systems have a very important role to play in creating the right skills But education systems in the region fall short of the demands of their economies in two major ways The first is that despite high levels of enrollment they do not produce enough graduates with the right skills Students graduate with diplomas not with skills because the quality of the education for many students is poor In large part this is because education systems remain focused on providing an excellent education to a few at the expense of improving the quality of learning for the majority Moreover the systems are still making the transition from teaching the basics to inculcating higher order skills such as critical thinking and problem solving The second way in which education systems fall short is that outside of a few countries in the EU there are few opportunities for adults to retrain or acquire new skills This book argues that generating more of the right skills requires a fundamental change of approach in the education systems in the region so that they aim for and deliver higher quality education for the vast majority of students not just diplomas but skills To start with education systems need to turn the lights on and take seriously the measurement of what students actually learn as opposed to measurement of the inputs into the education process on the implicit assumption that learning follows Policy makers also need to move away from the focus on inputs and processes and increase the emphasis on incentives
