The Code of Trust Robin Dreeke,Cameron Stauth,2017-08-08 A counterintelligence expert shows readers how to use trust to achieve anything in business and in life Robin Dreeke is a 28 year veteran of federal service including the United States Naval Academy United States Marine Corps He served most recently as a senior agent in the FBI with 20 years of experience He was until recently the head of the Counterintelligence Behavioral Analysis Program where his primary mission was to thwart the efforts of foreign spies and to recruit American spies His core approach in this mission was to inspire reasonable well founded trust among people who could provide valuable information The Code of Trust is based on the system Dreeke devised tested and implemented during years of field work at the highest levels of national security Applying his system first to himself he rose up through federal law enforcement and then taught his system to law enforcement and military officials throughout the country and later to private sector clients The Code of Trust has since elevated executives to leadership and changed the culture of entire companies making them happier and more productive as morale soared Inspiring trust is not a trick nor is it an arcane art It s an important character building endeavor that requires only a sincere desire to be helpful and sensitive and the ambition to be more successful at work and at home The Code of Trust is based on 5 simple principles 1 Suspend Your Ego 2 Be Nonjudgmental 3 Honor Reason 4 Validate Others 5 Be Generous To be successful with this system a reader needs only the willingness to spend eight to ten hours learning a method of trust building that took Robin Dreeke almost a lifetime to create

Warm Beer, Lousy Food John S. Columbia,2009-12 The line began forming after eight o clock Sal short and heavy set kept everyone busy Neat in a white shirt and sports jacket with his grey fedora cocked to the side his crooked grin made you smile Without warning the heavy door would swing open and the waiters would come outside to join him They were dressed in pajamas or prison garb with hats and horns and were there to warm up the crowd Some in line expected this others were shocked The pink polka dot building should have been a warning Complete strangers in line became chummy exchanging stories they had heard toilet seat covers to serve drinks on microphones in the ladies room toilet paper for napkins Most had brought their friends there to be roasted The line of people varied in age They all dressed casually because they d heard you could get a pie in the face or a squirt in the eye The club s routines were blue in color but harmless If you were lucky you might see a Balls for the Queen or a Singing beer The price was always right for a good time and Warm Beer and Lousy Food was the place to be
