

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2011 question paper for the guidance of teachers

6050 FASHION AND FABRICS

6050/01

Paper 1 (Theory), maximum raw mark 60

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- Cambridge will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2011 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Culture and the City Deborah Stevenson, Amie Matthews, 2013-09-13 This edited collection will examine the way in which cities are imagined experienced and shaped by those who reside within them those who manage or govern them and those who as visitor tourist or traveller pass through them Attention will be paid to the influence that these various inhabitants have on city life and living and the dialectic that exists between their sometimes collective and sometimes divergent perceptions and uses of city space In conjunction with this the collection will explore the ways in which local culture and cultural policy are used by public and private interests as the framework for changing the image and amenity of the city in order to raise its profile and attract tourists The book contributes to discussions of the increasingly high profile place that cultural programs have in urban regeneration initiatives and explore the tensions conflicts and negotiations that emerge in urban spaces as a result of policy and culture coming together Papers will be sought from researchers around the world with a view to examining the nexus between tourism leisure and cultural programming from a number of perspectives and with reference to a range of international case studies This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Policy Research in Tourism Leisure and Events

Liberalization, Financial Instability and Economic Development Yilmaz Akyüz, 2014-05-01 Weighing up the costs and benefits of economic interdependence in a finance driven world this book argues that globalization understood and promoted as absolute freedom for all forms of capital has been oversold to the Global South and that the South should be as selective about globalization as the North Liberalization Financial Instability and Economic Development challenges the orthodoxy on the link between financial deepening and economic growth as well as that between the efficiency of financial markets and the benefits of liberalization Ultimately the author urges developing countries to control capital flows and asset bubbles preventing financial fragility and crises and recommends regional policy options for managing capital flows and exchange rates

Green to Gold Daniel C. Esty, Andrew Winston, 2009-01-09 From the Publishers Weekly review Two experts from Yale tackle the business wake up call du jour environmental responsibility from every angle in this thorough earnest guidebook pragmatically passionately financially and historically Though no company the authors know of is on a truly long term sustainable course Esty and Winston label the forward thinking green friendly or at least green acquainted companies WaveMakers and set out to assess honestly their path toward environmental responsibility and its impact on a company's bottom line customers suppliers and reputation Following the evolution of business attitudes toward environmental concerns Esty and Winston offer a series of fascinating plays by corporations such as Wal Mart GE and Chiquita Banana the bad guys who made good and the good guys watchdogs and industry associations mostly working behind the scenes A vast number of topics huddle beneath the umbrella of threats to the earth and many get a thorough analysis here from global warming to electronic waste take back legislation to subsidizing sustainable seafood For the responsible business leader this volume provides plenty of organic food for thought

Promoting Innovation, Productivity and Industrial Growth and Reducing Poverty Maureen Mackintosh, Joanna Chataway, Marc Wuyts, 2021-04-26 Development and the ending of mass poverty require a massive increase in productive capabilities and production in developing countries Some countries notably in Asia are achieving this Yet pro poor aid policies especially for the least developed countries operate largely without reference to policy thinking on the promotion of innovation for productivity growth Conversely policy makers and researchers on innovation and industrial policies tend to know little about the potential for social protection to support innovation and productivity improvement This book aims to focus attention on this gulf between research on innovation and on poverty reduction and to identify some of its policy consequences to set out some ways in which this gulf can be bridged analytically and empirically and to contribute to the creation of an agenda for further research and an understanding of the urgency of the implied rethinking The first two chapters provide sustained arguments for embedding social policy thinking in much more productivist frameworks of thought that focus on raising productivity and employment and for identifying growth theories that can incorporate satisfactory understandings of innovation and employment upgrading A set of chapters then tackle these broad themes in the context of health addressing the interlinked issues of innovation health inequity and associated impoverishment The final set of chapters examines the challenge of creating industrial policies that generate both innovation and employment using and going beyond concepts of systems of innovation
