Feeling White Cheryl E. Matias, 2016-03-22 Discussing race and racism often conjures up emotions of guilt shame anger defensiveness denial sadness dissonance and discomfort Instead of suppressing those feelings coined emotionalities of whiteness they are nonetheless important to identify understand and deconstruct if one ever hopes to fully commit to racial equity Feeling White Whiteness Emotionality and Education delves deeper into these white emotionalities and other latent ones by providing theoretical and psychoanalytic analyses to determine where these emotions so stem how they operate and how they perpetuate racial inequities in education and society The author beautifully weaves in creative writing with theoretical work to artistically illustrate how these emotions operate while also engaging the reader in an emotional experience in and of itself claiming one must feel to understand This book does not rehash former race concepts rather it applies them in novel ways that get at the heart of humanity thus revealing how feeling white ultimately impacts race relations Without a proper investigation on these underlying emotions that can both stifle or enhance one's commitment to racial justice in education and society the field of education denies itself a proper emotional preparation so needed to engage in prolonged educative projects of racial and social justice By digging deep to what impacts humanity most our hearts this book dares to expose one's daily experiences with race thus individually challenging us all to self investigate our own racialized emotionalities Drawing on her deep wisdom about how race works Cheryl Matias directly interrogates the emotional arsenal White people use as shields from the pain of confronting racism peeling back its layers to unearth a core of love that can open us up In Feeling White Whiteness Emotionality and Education Matias deftly names and deconstructs distancing emotions prodding us to stay in the conversation in order to become teachers who can reach children marginalized by racism Christine Sleeter Ph.D. Professor Emerita California State University Monterey Bay In Feeling White Cheryl E. Matias blends astute observations analyses and insights about the emotions embedded in white identity and their impact on the racialized politics of affect in teacher education Drawing deftly on her own classroom experiences as well as her mastery of the methodologies and theories of critical whiteness studies Matias challenges us to develop what Dr King called the strength to love by confronting and conquering the affective structures that promote white innocence and preclude white accountability George Lipsitz Ph.D. Professor University of California Santa Barbara and author of The Possessive Investment in Whiteness Cheryl E. Matias Ph.D. is an assistant professor in the School of Education and Human Development at the University of Colorado Denver She is a motherscholar of three children including boy girl twins
