

Introduction to accounting

Learning summary

By the end of this chapter you should understand:

- how to explain the difference between book-keeping and accounting
- the purposes of measuring business profit and loss
- the role of accounting in providing information for monitoring progress and decision-making
- the meaning of assets, liabilities and owner's equity
- explain and apply the accounting equation
- that statements of financial position record assets and liabilities on a specified date.

TERMS

Accounting is the process of using the information collected by the book-keeper to calculate key measures such as a business's profit or loss and what the business owns (assets) and owes (liabilities).

Assets are items a business owns or amounts owed to them by others. They can be categorised as current assets (to be used within the business with the aim to make profit, i.e. cash or inventory) or non-current assets (large, expensive items such as machinery and premises which stay longer in a business but also help to generate profit).

Book-keeping is the recording of a business's financial transactions. These transactions are placed in the books of prime entry.

Liabilities are amounts owed by the business to others and they can also be current (within the financial year or next 12 months) or non-current (due for repayment after the end of the current financial year or over 12 months).

Loss is when total costs exceed total revenue.

Owner's equity or capital represents the amount of money or assets, such as machinery or vehicles, an owner introduces into the business. It is essentially what the business owes to the owner.

Profit is when total revenue exceeds total costs.

Differences between book-keeping and accounting

It is essential that every business keeps track of its transactions in order to accurately calculate profit or loss at the end of the financial year. However, perhaps more important for the business owner themselves, keeping track of transactions enables them to make

Notes From The Tilt-A-Whirl N. D. Wilson,2013-08-06 What is this World What kind of place is it The round kind The spinning kind The moist kind The inhabited kind The kind with flamingos real and artificial The kind where water in the sky turns into beautifully symmetrical crystal flakes sculpted by artists unable to stop themselves in both design and quantity The kind of place with tiny powerfully jawed mites assigned to the carpets to eat my dead skin as it flakes off The kind with people who kill and people who love and people who do both This world is beautiful but badly broken I love it as it is because it is a story and it isn't stuck in one place It is full of conflict and darkness like every good story a world of surprises and questions to explore And there's someone behind it there are uncomfortable answers to the how's and whys and what's In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God Through Him were all things made Welcome to His poem His play His novel Let the pages flick your thumbs English SATs Grammar, Punctuation and Spelling Study Guide: York Notes for KS2 Ebook Edition Kate Woodford, Elizabeth
