Sympathy Vote Glenn Wall,2014 A dark morning Waves on Lake Michigan An elegant home on the beach and a senatorial candidate who would one day be considered presidential material at home with his close knit family in one of Chicago s quietest most elegant suburbs This is the unlikely setting for the most notorious baffling and horrific cold case murder of the 1960s which along with its investigation made headlines nationwide for years Valerie Percy pretty smart destined for greatness at just 22 years old a key aide and campaigner for her father Charles Percy violently beaten and stabbed to death in her bedroom by a knife wielding intruder The only witness her stepmother No sexual assault Nothing taken No rational explanation As inexplicable as the Manson murders that would occur in the Hollywood Hills a few years later The killer escaped to a beach and disappeared into thin air never to be found Percy went on to become a long serving Senator from the state of Illinois His late daughter s twin became the First Lady of West Virginia married to West Virginia Senator Jay Rockefeller Glenn Wall revisits the long cold case Talking to cops both retired and current reporters friends and Percy s former aides He explores the players the place and posits a compelling theory of who did it a violent disturbed individual who was raised within walking distance of Percy s home and ultimately died at the hands of his own family This is one of the country s most enduring unsolved murders Amazon com The Finger of God Jesse L.
