Written by mother and son duo Ryeson Shana Bull Randall the Blue Spider Goes Surfing the first book in the Randall the Blue Spider series teaches children how to name their fears and overcome them by offering simple coping mechanisms and lots of silliness     Ed Bacon Gregory L. Heller,2013-03-23 In the mid twentieth century as Americans abandoned city centers in droves to pursue picket fenced visions of suburbia architect and urban planner Edmund Bacon turned his sights on shaping urban America As director of the Philadelphia City Planning Commission Bacon forged new approaches to neighborhood development and elevated Philadelphia s image to the level of great world cities Urban development came with costs however and projects that displaced residents and replaced homes with highways did not go uncriticized nor was every development that Bacon envisioned brought to fruition Despite these challenges Bacon oversaw the planning and implementation of dozens of redesigned urban spaces the restored colonial neighborhood of Society Hill the new office development of Penn Center and the transit oriented shopping center of Market East Ed Bacon is the first biography of this charismatic but controversial figure Gregory L Heller traces the trajectory of Bacon s two decade tenure as city planning director which coincided with a transformational period in American planning history Edmund Bacon is remembered as a larger than life personality but in Heller s detailed account his successes owed as much to his savvy negotiation of city politics and the pragmatic particulars of his vision In the present day as American cities continue to struggle with shrinkage and economic restructuring Heller s insightful biography reveals an inspiring portrait of determination and a career long effort to transform planning ideas into reality     The Fastest Dinosaurs Don Lessem,2005-01-01 Dino Don Lessem brings readers face to face with various dinosaur species detailing their habitats way of life and how they became extinct An acclaimed dinosaur expert Don Lessem has written more than 30 children s books writes a popular dinosaur column in Highlights magazine and was an adviser for Jurassic Park Take a trip through dinosaur time to meet these fast dinosaurs face to face The Gallimimus could outrun a sandstorm The Struthiomimus may have been the fastest dinosaur It could run up to 60 miles per hour The Liaraptor ran until it took off into the air These may have been the first dinosaurs to fly Plus you ll get to know Heterodontosaurus Gasparinisaura Troodon Velociraptor and Ornithomimus     The Philadelphia Area Weather Book Jon Nese,Glenn Schwartz,2005-02 Answers various questions about Philadelphia s weather and climate from the Poconos and Philadelphia to southern New Jersey and the Shore to Delaware This book offers a history of the region s pivotal role in the development of weather science that goes back to colonial times and gives an account of what forecasters actually do on a daily basis     Editor & Publisher International Year Book ,2007 The encyclopedia of the newspaper industry     The Great Skills Gap Jason Wingard,Christine Farrugia,2021-06-08 An extraordinary confluence of forces stemming from automation and digital technologies is transforming both the world of work and the ways we educate current and future employees to contribute productively to the workplace The Great Skills Gap opens with the premise that the exploding scope and pace of technological innovation in the digital age is fast transforming the fundamental nature of work. Due to these developments, the skills and preparation that employers need from their talent pool are shifting. The accelerated pace of evolution and disruption in the competitive business landscape demands that workers be not only technically proficient but also exceptionally agile in their capacity to think and act creatively and quickly learn new skills. This book explores how these transformative forces are or should be driving innovations in how colleges and universities prepare students for their careers. Focused on the impact of this confluence of forces at the nexus of work and higher education, the book's contributors, an illustrious group of leading educators, prominent employers, and other thought leaders, answer profound questions about how business and higher education can best collaborate in support of the twenty-first century workforce. Property Thomas W. Merrill, Henry E. Smith, 2007. This revised casebook is designed for a building block property course that serves as a student's foundation for the rest of law school and beyond. Avoiding the typical hodgepodge of issues, the book presents material in an integrated way, starting with the central role of exclusive in rem rights in property and systematically developing elaborations, exceptions, and counterfoils to this idea using vivid cases, both old and new. Timely issues in intellectual property, mortgages, and regulatory takings, as well as traditional topics like equity and restitution, are given expansive treatment. The emphasis throughout is on fundamental principles and policy questions. Publisher's website
