Digital Media, Youth, and Credibility Miriam J. Metzger, Andrew J. Flanagin, 2008 The difficulties in determining the quality of information on the Internet in particular the implications of wide access and questionable credibility for youth and learning Today we have access to an almost inconceivably vast amount of information from sources that are increasingly portable accessible and interactive The Internet and the explosion of digital media content have made more information available from more sources to more people than at any other time in human history This brings an infinite number of opportunities for learning social connection and entertainment But at the same time the origin of information its quality and its veracity are often difficult to assess This volume addresses the issue of credibility the objective and subjective components that make information believable in the contemporary media environment The contributors look particularly at youth audiences and experiences considering the implications of wide access and the questionable credibility of information for youth and learning They discuss such topics as the credibility of health information online how to teach credibility assessment and public policy solutions Much research has been done on credibility and new media but little of it focuses on users younger than college students Digital Media Youth and Credibility fills this gap in the literature Contributors Matthew S Eastin Gunther Eysenbach Brian Hilligoss Frances Jacobson Harris R David Lankes Soo Young Rieh S Shyam Sundar Fred W Weingarten

The Intelligent Investor Benjamin Graham, 2013 Satellite Industry Directory, 1999 Red Hot Lies Christopher C. Horner, 2008-11-11 Liars Al Gore the United Nations the New York Times The global warming lobby relentless in its push for bigger government more spending and more regulation will use any means necessary to scare you out of your wits as well as your tax dollars and your liberties with threats of rising oceans deadly droughts and unspeakable future consequences of climate change In pursuing their anti energy anti capitalist and pro government agenda the global warming alarmists and unscrupulous scientists who see this scare as their gravy train to federal grants and foundation money resort to dirty tricks smear campaigns and outright lies abandoning scientific standards journalistic integrity and the old fashioned notions of free speech and open debate In Red Hot Lies bestselling author Christopher Horner himself the target of Greenpeace dirty tricks and alarmist smears exposes the dark underbelly of the environmental movement Power hungry politicians blacklist scientists who reject global warming alarmism U S senators threaten companies that fund climate change dissenters Mainstream media outlets openly reject the notion of balance The occasional unguarded scientist candidly admits the need to twist the facts to paint an uglier picture in order to keep the faucet of government money flowing In the name of saving the planet anything goes But why the nasty tactics Why the cover ups lies and intimidation Because Al Gore and his ilk want to use big government at the local state federal and global level to run your life and they can brook no opposition But the actual facts as Red Hot Lies makes clear aren't nearly as scary as their fiction
