Ace Magashule Bursaries For 2015:

Gangster State Pieter-Louis Myburgh, 2019 In spite of Cyril Ramaphosa's new dawn there are powerful forces in the ruling party that risk losing everything if corruption and state capture finally do come to an end At the centre of the old guard's fightback efforts is Ace Magashule a man viewed by some as South Africa's most dangerous politician In this explosive book investigative journalist Pieter Louis Myburgh ventures deeper than ever before into Magashule's murky dealings from his time as a struggle activist in the 1980s to his powerful rule as premier of the Free State province for nearly a decade and his rise to one of the ANC's most influential positions Sifting through heaps of records documents and exclusive source interviews Myburgh explores Magashule's relationship with the notorious Gupta family and other tender moguls investigates government projects costing billions that enriched his friends and family but failed the poor reveals how he was about to be arrested by the Scorpions before their disbandment in the late 2000s and exposes the methods used to keep him in power in the Free State and to secure him the post of ANC secretary general Most tellingly Myburgh pieces together a pack of leaked emails and documents to reveal shocking new details on a massive Free State government contract and Magashule's dealings with a businessman who was gunned down in Sandton in 2017 These files seem to lay bare the methods of a man who usually operated without leaving a trace Gangster State is an unflinching examination of the ANC's top leadership in the post Jacob Zuma era one that should lead readers to a disconcerting conclusion When it comes to the forces of capture South Africa is still far from safe

Women's Organizations and Democracy in South Africa Shireen Hassim, 2006-06-26 The transition to democracy in South Africa was one of the defining events in twentieth century political history The South African women's movement is one of the most celebrated on the African continent Shireen Hassim examines interactions between the two as she explores the gendered nature of liberation and regime change Her work reveals how women's political organizations both shaped and were shaped by the broader democratic movement Alternately asserting their political independence and giving precedence to the democratic movement as a whole women activists proved flexible and remarkably successful in influencing policy At the same time their feminism was profoundly shaped by the context of democratic and nationalist ideologies In reading the last twenty five years of South African history through a feminist framework Hassim offers fresh insights into the interactions between civil society political parties and the state Hassim boldly confronts sensitive issues such as the tensions between autonomy and political dependency in feminists' engagement with the African National Congress ANC and other democratic movements and black white relations within women's organizations She offers a historically informed discussion of the challenges facing feminist activists during a time of nationalist struggle and democratization Winner Victoria Schuck Award for best book on women and politics American Political Science Association An exceptional study based on extensive research Highly recommended Choice A rich history of women's organizations in South Africa Hassim had observed at first hand and often participated in much of what she described She had access to the informants and private archives that so enliven the narrative and enrich the analysis She provides a finely balanced assessment Gretchen Bauer African Studies Review They're Burning the Churches Patrick Noonan,2003 This true account of the traumatised memory of the people of the townships of Vaal is a meticulously written moving account of the groundbreaking events that dramatically accelerated the downfall of apartheid Publisher

Surviving the Beast Angelo Agrizzi,2021-10 Grandstanding Justin Tosi,Brandon Warmke,2020 Why does talk about politics and moral issues tend to get so ugly heated and personal So much public discussion goes awry because people are using it for the wrong reasons Too often especially online people engage in moral grandstanding they use moral talk to impress others by showing them they have the right views Tosi and Warmke show why people behave this way why it s wrong and what we can do about it The Madonna of Excelsior Zakes Mda,2007-05-15 A new novel by a towering presence in contemporary South African literature In 1971 nineteen citizens of Excelsior in South Africa s white ruled Free State were charged with breaking apartheid s Immorality Act which forbade sex between blacks and whites Taking this case as raw material for his alchemic imagination Zakes Mda tells the story of a family at the heart of the scandal and of a country in which apartheid concealed interracial liaisons of every kind Niki the fallen madonna transgresses boundaries for the sake of love her choices have repercussions in the lives of her black son and mixed race daughter who come of age in post apartheid South Africa where freedom prompts them to reexamine their country s troubled history at first hand By turns earthy witty and tragic The Madonna of Excelsior is a brilliant depiction of life in South Africa and of the dramatic changes between the 1970s and the present Democracy and Apartheid Anthony Butler,1998 Using South Africa s transition a focus this book assesses and challenges conventional assumptions in the theory of democracy Political philosophers treat the electoral method as a means of resolving conflict into consensus within a pre existing political community The author shows how the South African case demonstrates the viability of the electoral method in the absence of a community with common languages of political appraisal Elections can transform one kind of conflict into another and the idea of democracy itself can facilitate communication between sociologically separated groups with diverse political languages This book turns these lessons back on Western democracies and asks whether they are not also characterized by systemic determination and sociological division Transformation and Legitimation in Post-apartheid Universities J. C. Van der Merwe,Dionne Van

Reenen,2016 Two decades after the democratic transition South African universities are in turmoil Whilst the old is slowly becoming unhinged reimagining the new is protracted and contested The challenges ahead including a funding crunch are formidable and bear the imprint of South African postcolonial specificities and global transformations in higher education At this moment critical and engaged socio historical scholarship is indispensable Transformation and Legitimation in Post apartheid Universities Reading discourses from Reitz is such a work Revisiting the notorious Reitz incident of 2008 when a satirical video made by students from the University of the Free State UFS to register their resistance to the racial integration of black students into historically white residences became public the text offers an analysis of the broader cultural and socio political context that constituted the conditions of possibility for the incident and its aftermath Attention is shifted from the principal actors in the original drama a handful of students and workers to a critical interrogation of the broader structures positions discourses and practices that fed into the Reitz incident reaching into the present with violent and racially charged student and worker protests in 2016 Van der Merwe and Van Reenen deliver a theoretically rich analysis of the anatomy of current contestations about race and transformation in higher education in South Africa the resultant legitimization crisis facing the UFS and South African universities more generally as well as ways to restore institutional legitimacy and reputation focusing on instituting deeper more durable change that unlocks the promise of democracy Publisher description

The Heart of Redness Zakes Mda, 2007-05-15 A startling novel by the leading writer of the new South Africa In The Heart of Redness shortlisted for the prestigious Commonwealth Writers Prize Zakes Mda sets a story of South African village life against a notorious episode from the country's past The result is a novel of great scope and deep human feeling of passion and reconciliation As the novel opens Camugu who left for America during apartheid has returned to Johannesburg Disillusioned by the problems of the new democracy he follows his famous lust to Qolorha on the remote Eastern Cape There in the nineteenth century a teenage prophetess named Nonqawuse commanded the Xhosa people to kill their cattle and burn their crops promising that once they did so the spirits of their ancestors would rise and drive the occupying English into the ocean The failed prophecy split the Xhosa into Believers and Unbelievers dividing brother from brother wife from husband with devastating consequences One hundred fifty years later the two groups descendants are at odds over plans to build a vast casino and tourist resort in the village and Camugu is soon drawn into their heritage and their future and into a bizarre love triangle as well The Heart of Redness is a seamless weave of history myth and realist fiction It is arguably the first great novel of the new South Africa a triumph of imaginative and historical writing

To Survive and Succeed Mkhuseleli Jack, 2018 Mkhuseleli Khusta Jack was born on a white owned farm in the Eastern Cape Evicted from their home his family was split up wandering between different relatives with nowhere to live legally The young Khusta had a fierce yearning to go to school Meeting obstacles at every turn he never gave up Reaching high school in Port Elizabeth against all the odds his drive finds a new focus freedom for his people Through fiery years of activism his resolve never wavered Khusta Jack became a respected leader in the democratic movement Today as a successful businessman he is as outspoken as always A true story of sacrifice courage and triumph

We Shall Sing for the Fatherland and Other Plays Zakes Mda, 1980

Who Rules South Africa? Martin Plaut, Paul Holden, 2012-06-14 In this timely work WHO RULES SOUTH AFRICA highly regarded authors Paul Holden and Martin Plaut analyse the political elites that battle daily for power in South Africa They argue that power does not reside in traditional institutions such as Parliament or even the Cabinet Rather power lies within the ANC led Alliance which with no founding document and no written constitution is an unstructured and mutable political hydra with business and criminal elements in close attendance It is the interaction between these forces which is the real story behind post apartheid South Africa In a country where poverty is rampant and institutions are weak the battle for power is set to intensify The authors unravel the mystery of how the rainbow nation has reached such a pass What are the origins of the Alliance and will it survive the current power struggles Who are the shadowy forces that operate within or alongside the Alliance Most importantly they seek to answer the burning question of whether South Africa is destined to become another African tragedy or whether there is still the promise of growth and a stable democracy

National Drug Master Plan South Africa. Drug Advisory Board,1999 Ways of Dying Zakes Mda,1997 Ways of Dying tells the story of the eccentric but dignified professional mourner Toloki His odyssey takes him from a rural village community to the shabby vibrant outskirts of a contemporary South African city where the tenderness that springs up between him and the beautiful and tragic Noria helps them to heal the past By turns magical brutal and funny this compelling work is a major new contribution to South African writing Strategies for the European Construction Sector Commission of the European Communities,1994 Tobacco Wars Johann Van Loggerenberg, Join one of South Africa s former tax sleuths Johann van Loggerenberg in a wild ride through the double dealing world of tobacco s colourful characters and ruthless corporates Meet the femme fatales mavericks mercenaries and grandmasters and learn how the crime busting unit led by Van Loggerenberg at SARS and its Project Honey Badger became a victim of a war between industry players and a high stakes political game driven by state capture This is the tale of a few good men and women who dared to try to hold to account a billion dollar international industry rife with private spy network
