Indonesia Edimon Ginting,Christopher Manning,Kiyoshi Taniguchi,2018-02-01 The book focuses on Indonesia s most pressing labor market challenges and associated policy options to achieve higher and more inclusive economic growth The challenges consist of creating jobs for and the skills in a youthful and increasingly better educated workforce and raising the productivity of less educated workers to meet the demands of the digital age The book deals with a range of interrelated topics the changing supply and demand for labor in relation to the shift of workers out of agriculture urbanization and the growth of megacities raising the quality of schooling for new jobs in the digital economy and labor market policies to improve both labor standards and productivity Brand New Justice Simon Anholt,2006-08-11 Recently vilified as the prime dynamic driving home the breach between poor and rich nations here the branding process is rehabilitated as a potential saviour of the economically underprivileged Brand New Justice now in a revised paperback edition systematically analyses the success stories of the Top Thirteen nations demonstrating that their wealth is based on the last mile of the commercial process buying raw materials and manufacturing cheaply in third world countries these countries realise their lucrative profits by adding value through finishing packaging and marketing and then selling the branded product on to the end user at a hugely inflated price The use of sophisticated global media techniques alongside a range of creative marketing activities are the lynchpins of this process Applying his observations on economic history and the development and impact of global marketing Anholt presents a cogent plan for developing nations to benefit from globalization So long the helpless victim of capitalist trading systems he shows that they can cross the divide and graduate from supplier nation to producer nation Branding native produce on a global scale making a commercial virtue out of perceived authenticity and otherness and fully capitalising on the last mile benefits are key to this graduation and fundamental to forging a new global economic balance Anholt argues with a forceful logic but also backs his hypothesis with enticing glimpses of this process actually beginning to take place Examining activities in India Thailand Russia and Africa among others he shows the risks challenges and pressures inherent in turning the tide but above all he demonstrates the very real possibility of enlightened capitalism working as a force for good in global terms

National Parks and Protected Areas James Gordon Nelson, Rafal Serafin, 2013-06-29 National parks and protected areas offer a wealth of ecological and social contributions or services to humans and life on earth This book describes the strengths of national parks and protected areas in different parts of Europe and North America and the challenges to the full realization of their goals It shows that they are useful not only in conserving rare species and biodiversity but also in protecting water supply and other resources necessary to tourism and to economic and social development generally Ideas and information on useful planning management and decision making arrangements are presented and research needs are identified

Sacred Natural Sites Bas Verschuuren, Jeffrey McNeely, Gonzalo Oviedo, Robert Wild, 2012-06-25 Sacred Natural Sites are the world's oldest protected places This book focuses on a wide spread of both iconic and lesser known examples such as sacred groves of the Western Ghats India Sagarmatha Chomolungma Mt Everest Nepal Tibet and China the Golden Mountains of Altai Russia Holy Island of Lindisfarne UK and the sacred lakes of the Niger Delta Nigeria The book illustrates that sacred natural sites although often under threat exist within and outside formally recognised protected areas heritage sites Sacred natural sites may well be some of the last strongholds for building resilient networks of connected landscapes They also form important nodes for maintaining a dynamic socio cultural fabric in the face of global change The diverse authors bridge the gap between approaches to the conservation of cultural and biological diversity by taking into account cultural and spiritual values together with the socio economic interests of the custodian communities and other relevant stakeholders

Skills, Not Just Diplomas Lars Sondergaard, 2012 Future growth in the countries in Eastern Europe and Central Asia ECA will increasingly depend on innovation And innovation requires skills This makes it important as countries plan for recovery to undertake reforms to reduce the skills shortages that the previous growth episode exposed Education systems have a very important role to play in creating the right skills But education systems in the region fall short of the demands of their economies in two major ways The first is that despite high levels of enrollment they do not produce enough graduates with the right skills Students graduate with diplomas not with skills because the quality of the education for many students is poor In large part this is because education systems remain focused on providing an excellent education to a few at the expense of improving the quality of learning for the majority Moreover the systems are still making the transition from teaching the basics to inculcating higher order skills such as critical thinking and problem solving The second way in which education systems fall short is that outside of a few countries in the EU there are few opportunities for adults to retrain or acquire new skills This book argues that generating more of the right skills requires a fundamental change of approach in the education systems in the region so that they aim for and deliver higher quality education for the vast majority of students not just diplomas but skills To start with education systems need to turn the lights on and take seriously the measurement of what students actually learn as opposed to measurement of the inputs into the education process on the implicit assumption that learning follows Policy makers also need to move away from the focus on inputs and processes and increase the emphasis on incentives

A Thesaurus of English Word Roots Horace Gerald Danner, 2014-03-27 Horace G Danner's A Thesaurus of English Word Roots is a compendium of the most used word roots of the English language As Timothy B Noone notes in his foreword Dr Danner's book allows you not only to build up your passive English vocabulary resulting in word recognition knowledge but also gives you the rudiments for developing your active English vocabulary making it possible to infer the meaning of words with which you are not yet acquainted Your knowledge can now expand and will do so exponentially as your awareness of the roots in English words and your corresponding ability to decode unfamiliar words grows apace This is the beginning of a fine mental linguistic library so enjoy In A Thesaurus of English Word Roots all word roots are listed alphabetically along with the Greek or Latin words from which they derive together with the roots' original meanings If the current meaning of an individual root differs from the original meaning that is listed in a separate column In the examples column the words which contain the root are then listed starting with their prefixes for example dysacusia hyperacusia These root starting terms then are followed by terms where the root falls behind the word e.g. acouesthesia and acoumeter These words are followed by words where the root falls in the middle or the end as in such terms as bradyacusia and odynacusis In this manner A Thesaurus of English Word Roots places the word in as many word families as there are elements in the word This work will interest linguists and philologists and anyone interested in the etymological aspects of English language

Global Perspectives on Recognising Non-formal and Informal Learning Madhu Singh, 2015-06-05 This book deals with the relevance of recognition and validation of non formal and informal learning education and training the workplace and society In an increasing number of countries it is at the top of the policy and research agenda ranking among the possible ways to redress the glaring lack of relevant academic and vocational qualifications and to promote the development of competences and certification procedures which recognise different types of learning including formal non formal and informal learning The aim of the book is therefore to present and share experience expertise and lessons in such a way that enables its effective and immediate use across the full spectrum of country contexts whether in the developing or developed world It examines the importance of meeting institutional and political requirements that give genuine value to the recognition of non formal and informal learning it shows why recognition is important and clarifies its usefulness and the role it serves in education working life and voluntary work it emphasises the importance of the coordination interests motivations trust and acceptance by all stakeholders The volume is also premised on an understanding of a learning society in which all social and cultural groups irrespective of gender race social class ethnicity mental health difficulties are entitled to quality learning throughout their lives Overall the thrust is to see the importance of recognising non formal and informal learning as part of the larger movement for re directing education and training for change This change is one that builds on an equitable society and economy and on sustainable development principles and values such as respect for others respect for difference and diversity exploration and dialogue
